Treating Customers Fairly (TCF)

TCF is a set of principles introduced by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority (FSCA) to aid and underpin existing financial services legislation aimed at the protection of consumers and clients. The FSP values its relationship with its clients and acknowledges that without any clients it would not have a business. The TCF principles are embedded in the culture of the FSP and it continuously strives to enhance the quality of its service offering to clients and through its interaction with contracted product suppliers. The TCF principles are the following:

1. Clients/consumers can be confident that they are dealing with a service supplier where the fair treatment of customers is central to the corporate culture.
2. Products and services marketed and sold in the retail market are designed to meet the needs of identified consumer groups and are targeted accordingly.
3. Clients are provided with clear information and are kept appropriately informed before, during, and after the point of sale.
4. Where clients receive advice, the advice is suitable and takes account of their circumstances.
5. Clients/consumers are provided with products that perform as the company or service supplier has led them to expect, and the associated service is of an acceptable standard and as they have been led to expect.
6. Clients/consumers do not face unreasonable post-sale barriers imposed by the company or service supplier to change products, switch suppliers, submit a claim or make a complaint.

Business Continuity Plan

We always have our clients' best interests at heart and wish to ensure that all our clients have uninterrupted access to financial services, at all reasonable times. We can confirm that we have implemented a Business Continuity Plan that provides for the following:

- A business continuity plan that outlines arrangements to reduce the impact of business disruptions;
- A disaster recovery plan that sets out steps to be taken to resume operations following a disaster; and
- A succession plan sets a strategy for passing a key leadership role within the FSP to someone else in such a way that the business continues to operate after the key leader is no longer in control.

In nominating a successor we have identified a person who is like-minded, with similar experience and thinking to what our clients have grown accustomed to. We aim to provide a similar style, values, and culture in terms of dealing with clients and employees, to ensure an immediate and seamless transition of all business responsibilities. A client is of course always free to make alternative arrangements should they so wish.
